ISSUE ONE
July 1989

WHEN THE mod scene of the mid-60's petered out into flower power and psychedelia, there remained a hardcore of soul and rhythm & blues fans who stayed faithful to the music eminating from the studios of Motown, Stax and Atlantic. Their scene wasbased around not only hot imports but also long deleted and hard to get soul 45's - especially, towards the end of the decade, uptempo dance numbers in the traditional Motown style. An underground network of clubs sprang up, primarily in the North and Midlands of England.

TOWARDS THE end of the 60's the clubs in London and the South had discarded the now outdated Motown sound and replaced it with the new 'funk' sounds of bands such as Kool & The Gang and the Fatback Band. The underground soul fans however remained loyal to that mid-60's sound, and following a visit to Manchester's Twisted Wheel club, the respected soul journalist Dave Godin coined the phrase NORTHERN SOUL to differentiate between the mid-60's Motown sound and the funk sounds popular in the South.

IN THE late 60's and early 70's, practically every town and city in the North and Midlands (and even the West Country) had it's own rare soul club. However, the supply of Atlantic and Motown records suitable for dancing had almost run out so now the search was on to discover discs with that same beat but which had never previously seen the light of day in the UK, from ultra-obscure US ghetto labels, many of which had little or no distribution outside of their own particular town or city.

VERY SOON the UK's top Northern Soul d.j.'s were jetting out to the USA in the hope of uncovering the next 'monster' sound. What many people didn't realise was that many excellent Northern sounds had actually been released in the UK in the 60's but due to lack of distribution and airplay they sold only a handful of copies. Not only that, but several excellent dance records had actually been produced in the UK itself and were just waiting to be discovered. It is these records and their labels that this magazine is going to be based around. It's not going to be a magazine about the artists and their careers, but simply a magazine about rare UK soul records.

I've had some experience in running a fanzine (non-soul related) in the past, and have been into the Northern scene since 1974 so I know most of the complexities involved in a project like this. I've also contributed to magazines in the past, most recently the Owls Effort fanzine, but I thought it was about time I stopped lining other people's pockets and did something for myself. However, my UK collection runs to only around 150 items, so I'm definately going to be needing help with photocopies of rare items. I also need articles, be it reviews, gig reports, all time favourite records, top tens etc., etc. Anything would be gratefully appreciated. I'm not out to make money out of this magazine, I simply thought it was time that there was a magazine aimed directly at the collectors of UK soul rather than concentrating on the import side as all of the other Northern fanzines do.

So please, try to get involved and let's see if we can make a go of this.

Thanks for buying this issue,

Best wishes,

Pete Smith.

All records illustrated in this magazine supplied by the editor unless stated otherwise. Please send in your rarities for publication. The Miracles EP illustrated on the front cover is open to offers or will trade for Tony Middleton (Polydor) or Cajun Hart (WB) in any condition so long as they play!

COLUMBIA ()

COLUMBIA RECORDS was set up by the EMI group in or around 1953. Although ostensibly a British label, they did gain the rights to release product from certain American labels too, and some very collectable rock'n'roll sides gained a UK release. These included LaVern Baker's Tweedle Dee and Jim Dandy, Ruth Brown's Lucky Lips, the Chordettes' Mr. Sandman, and the super-rare Sh-boom by the Chords and Gee by the Crows.

The late 50's and early 60's were barren periods as far as rock history goes, so it comes as no surprise to discover that most of Columbia's output at this time came from the likes of Cliff Richard, Russ Conway and Acker Bilk. The occasional rhythm'n'blues disc did slip out, for example Gene Chandler's Duke Of Earl (4793) but it wasn't until the advent of the UK r & b/beat scene and the beginning of Beatlemania that things start to get interesting for the Northern Soul collector.

The original Columbia label was mauve with gold lettering, then green with silver lettring, and finally black with silver lettering circa late 1963. Demos are white with large red A up until 1967 when it changed to green with white A.

First off is a green label disc, Main Title Theme From 'The Rat Race' (4606) by Richard Maltby & His Orchestra. This is of course the original version of the Righteous Brothers' Band's Northern classic from the days of the Torch. Maltby's version was licensed from US Roulette Records and I've seen it listed for sale at £10 - £12, but I wouldn't have thought that it would ever have gained any spins on the scene as it sounds very dated.

One much talked about early Columbia 60's release is the (Detroit) Spinners' That's What Girls Are Made For/Heebie Jeebies (4693). This is obviously a Motown production but I'd be interested to know exactly how this managed to come out on Columbia and not on Fontana or Oriole? Any information gratefully received.

Richard Wylie's Brand New Man (7012) is another very scarce record from around 1964. This is another 'early' sounding record which would probably have been ignored had it not been by one of the scene's legendary figures.

All of Major Lance's Columbia recordings are rare, and without exception are all first class examples of 60's Chicago soul. The Monkey Time (7099) and Hey Little Girl (7168) bothed flopped but the strangely-titled Um Um Um Um Um Um almost hit for the Major until a white cover version by Mancunian Wayne Fontana outsold the original and went Top 10 (a feat which Fontana repeated with his cover of Garnet Mimms' It Was Easier To Hurt Her). A Lance EP entitled Um Um Um Um Um Um Was issued in 1964 and this sells for around £20 but this pales into insignificance in comparison to his 1965 album The Rhythm Of Major Lance, a copy of which could fetch up to £100. Major Lance released several singles after his minor hit, including such Northern classics as Ain't No Soul, Come See and Investigate.

Mike Vickers' On The Brink is probably still better known by it's cover-up title of Boogaloo Investigator and was one of the biggest sounds of the early 80's, especially on the scooterist scene. Originally discovered in the Midlands in 1979, this excellent instrumental was originally written as the theme to BBC TV's Wednesday Night Play, but the cover-up title of Boogaloo Investigator certainly gives a good idea of what the disc actually sounds like (i.e. an early 60's US police series theme).

Ray Barretto's El Watusi (7051) underwent a small revival a couple of years back when certain latin sounds were introduced to the niter scene, but this is a very dull record which begins well but does nothing else!

Derek Martin's ballad You Better Go was licensed from US Roulette. Be careful not to get this mixed up with the superb dancer If You Go by the same artist on Sue. Martin's only Columbia release came out on 7694.

Barry St. John's Everything I Touch Turns To Tears first went big around 1978 and is still popular today. This record has one of the best intros I've ever heard but unfortunetaely Mickie Most's production lets the record down with the chorus having been recorded so loud that the sound almost distorts. Nevertheless a great record and still £30 a throw.

Wayne Gibson's cover of the Rolling Stones' Under My Thumb (7911) just missed out on the charts in 1966, but the 1974 reissue on Pye Disco Demand made the Top 20. Gibson performed live on Top Of The Pops complete with a Wigan Casino Night Owl patch on his bomber jacket!

I Don't Want To Talk About It by Nancy Ames (8039) needs no introduction, having been played on and off for fifteen years. Also look out for her Friends And Lovers Forever (7809) which has been seen listed at £15.

One of the rarest discs on Columbia comes from a somewhat unusual source - early 60's teen star Helen Shapiro with one of her last efforts for the label, Stop And You'll Become Aware (8256). This superb dancer was first played at the Casino in January 1978 by Russ Winstanley covered as Stop Pretending by Dana Valery and has been in-demand ever since. Shapiro also did a version of Shop Around which could be worth checking out on Columbia 7340.

Ex-Seekers lead singer Judith Durham's second solo single received a few plays at the Casino in mid-78 via Richard Searling.

Interesting record on Columbia 8532 in the shape of former Junior Showtime presenter Bobby Bennett's cover of You're Ready Now (at least I presume it is he and not the US artist of the same name!). It was spun a few times on the East Coast in 76 but never really took off, even so it remains one of the rarest on the label - mine cost £20 in VG, a bit expensive maybe but they very rarely turn up for sale.

Another extremely rare release - if you can call it that - is Sly & The Family Stone's classic Dance To The Music (8369). This was apparently withdrawn after only a week of issue and rereleased on Direction. As with Jimmy Thomas' Beautiful Night on Parlophone, issues seem to be just as scarce as demos. One fact that hasalways seem to be overlooked concerning the Columbia releaseis that it's a very different version of the song to the one that appeared on Direction in that there's an instrumental break before the first verse, a longer ending and an entirely different mix.

One record that I've always hated and would certainly never dance to is This Beautiful Day by both Solomon King (8676) and Levi Jackson (8807). I presume that it's the same recording on both records. It's a dreadful song with slightly gospelish lyrics, and for some reason it's been huge since 1979.

From the ridiculous to the sublime, and what is perhaps my favourite single of all on Columbia, Walter Jackson's superb It's An Uphill Climb To The Bottom (7949). This is another midtempo ender type record, and is a million times better than his best known Northern track Where Have All The Flowers Gone.

Lastly, a UK produced disc from Romey Carr and her version of the Velvelettes' These Tnings Will Keep Me Loving You (8710). Hard to imagine why anyone would attempt a cover cf a five year old Motown record in 1970, but this weak version of the classic met with no success whatsoever and now goes for around £15.

Other Columbia items to keepa look out for; Martin Raynor's cover of Candy To Me (7563), the Poppies' Lullaby Of Love (7879), three classics from Little Richard (Poor Dog (7974), I Don't Want To Discuss It (8263) and A Little Bit Of Something (8240)), plus of course Larry Williams & Johnny Watson's A Quitter Never Wins (8140).

ADVERTISEMENTS

If you would like to advertise a list or records, tapes or whatever or if you have something to sell, run a magazine or want to contact people in general, we're going to run free advertisements beginning from the next issue. Send your ad to the editorial address but not over five lines please. Can anyone sell copies of this mag at venues etc.? Give me a ring or drop me a line if you think you can sell some. Also, please search your collections for those rarities and send us a photocopy for printing! Record and venue reviews also very welcome. Sorry to keep going on about this but fanzine readers are well known for lethargy so if I keep going on about it someone may take note!

VENUES

Coming from the Midlands as I do, life down South can be very rough; beer that tastes like piss, no decent football teams and very few Northern do's. However, I've managed to get to three events recently which were as follows............

Eastbourne Cumberland Hotel

This is an infrequent event organised by some people called 'Night Owl Promotions' which is basically a Northerner called Jock who lives in Seaford and some of his mates. They put on do's every three or four months, usually in Brighton or Eastbourne. Unfortunately the venues often leave a lot to be desired as did the one in the students bar at Brighton college, but the Eastbourne venue is pretty good. The dj's are always the same four people plus one guest, which is a bit frustrating because, with the possible exception of Kim Styles, they always play the same records every time or simply play to themselves (i.e. the floor may be empty but they press on with obscure items or 70's rubbish. This is all very well at a 'progressive' Northern night but these events are supposed to be oldies nights, so I'd like to hear more stuff that people, especially some of the younger ones, actually know instead of the stuff that the dj's want to listen to). Another complaint is that the dj's rarely speak - so why the fuck are they dj's??? Anyway, Andy Pook's spot included Barbara McNair - You're Gonna Love My Baby (Motown), Tobi Lark - Challenge My Love (Topper?) and Phil Flowers -Discontented (Dot). I didn't catch the name of the next dj but I remember him playing Dry Well - Gipsy which I used to hate but now think is great. Kim's spot was interesting as it gave him a chance to make me jealous with some of his UK rarities like Tammy St.John - Nobody Knows What's Goin' On (Pye demo), Astors - Candy (Atlantic demo), and Soul City - Everybody Dance Now (Cameo Parkway demo). Kim also plays the incredible Down And Out by George Freeman which in all honesty is the best midtempo record I've ever heard, and if you like your soul deep, it don't come much deeper than this. Kim also has another version of the Shammettes - Don't Waste Your Time, can't remember the artist but I think it was on Scepter.

Andy Crane's spot wasn't too hot, best things being George Smith's excellent midtempo version of Robin Rice's I've Had It (Turntable). He also played Doug Banks - Just Kept On Dancing (Argo) but it doesn't do any good announcing it as being "for the trendies" - I don't see what's trendy about asking for a record that's actually known! The organiser Jock did the last spot as usual, can't remember what he played but at least he spared us Guy Darrell this time. Oh yes, his best thing wasBetty Everett - Trouble Over The Weekend (President) which is great stuff.

So, an indifferent night but beggars can't be choosy down here. The clientele are mainly mods and scooterists but there's never any trouble. Very few records for sale, mine was the only box but it didn't do me too much good seeing as most of the people didn't know the things I was selling, really obscure stuff like Pookie Hudson, Jimmy Mack, Lynne Randell, Bobby Paris etc!

LONDON 100 CLUB

It's a shame that this is such a hopeless venue because the sounds and the crowd are good, but it really is far too small too have an enjoyable night. I danced about twenty times but got bumped every ten seconds or so which is fair enough but it does get on your nerves after a while. The DJ line up this time included Guy Hennigan, Butch, Ian Clark, Tim Ashibende, Adey and Mick Smith. Butch's spot was a real dissapointment, after hearing so much about these brilliant discoveries I can't remember anything particularly outstanding. Ian Clark's spot was pretty good including Eric Mercury -Lonely Girl (Mercury). Adey Croasdell has got hold of the rights to everything on the Shrinelabel, and to prove the point he kicked off with an unissued version of Eddie Daye - Guess Who Loves You (which sounded exactly like the original). Best spot of the night had to be Mick Smith's, which featured such goodies as the excellent Timi Yuro - It'll Never Be Over For Me (UK LIberty LP), Frankie & Johnny - I'll Hold You (UK Decca - demo, natch) and Joannie Sommers - Don't Pity Me (Warner Bros - a copy went for £130 on the night). Mick also played Tony Middleton - To The Ends Of The Earth, on a Polydor white demo!

HERNE BAY KINGS HALL

Two allnighters in the space of two weeks hasn't been known for me since Wigan days, especially being such a boring 'straightie' these days, but as this was only 50 miles away I decided to check it out. The Herne Bay all nighters started about a year ago and had success initially, but attendances dropped immediately. I went to one in August 88 and there were only about 100 people there, which is sad because it's a superb venue situated right on the beach with a luxurious hall about the same size as the Wulfrun in Wolverhampton. The attendance was very low this time, but all there had a good time. Some of the best sounds heard were Chapter Five - You Can't Mean It (UK CBS), Vondells - Hey Girl (Airtown), Tony Middleton, Timi Yuro, Magnetics - Lady In Green (Bonnie), Ben Zine - Village Of Tears (Parkway - not heard that for a few years) and Tony Galla - So In Love (Swan). I doubt if they'll be holding more nighters there due to the attendance but it wasn't too bad a night.

Right, I've literally just this second been informed that there's going to be an allnighter on Hastings Pier on November 11th. This is a massive ballroom and should be perfect. DJ line up at the moment features Guy Hennigan, Dave Evison, Ady Croasdell and myself and Helen. Admission will be £4. Listen out for details on Evvy's radio show and there will be ads in Echoes etc. Something to look forward to anyway.

THE FIRST OF WHAT WILL BE A REGULAR LOOK AT THOSE RARE (AND NOT SO RARE) 45'S

JACKIE EDWARDS - I FEEL SO BAD (Island WI-3006)

Jackie Edwards seems to have had two careers, one as a Jamaican reggae/r & b singer and the other as composer of such hits as When I Come Home for the Spencer Davis Group. I Feel So Bad came out on the old red and white Island label in 1966 and has been played on the scene since the late 60's. It begins with a stomping drum, bass and guitar with sax interjections, then superb vocals from Jackie, but then in comes a magical orchestral backing, the full works, and it's this that gives the record such a magical feel. Possibly the best orchestral arrangement I've ever heard, courtesy of one Syd Dale. This is now a £15 record but the one pictured cost me 25p from a second hand record shop in Eastbourne. As you can see, the leble looks rough, but when I bought it it was covered in ink, so I soaked it in bleach for 10 minutes - resulting in the removal of all of the writing and only partial fading of the label.

EXCITERS - WEDDINGS MAKE ME CRY (London HLZ 10038)

This finally seems to be getting the recognition that it surely deserves. I first read about this in Dave McCadden's Soul Time fanzine in '77, but didn't get to hear it until years later. The story is the familiar one of girl loses boy, boy marries someone else, sung plaintively by Brenda while the backing singers repeat "If you're sad and blue wandering what to do" before, in the middle of the song we get a terrific stomping 'middle eight' before relaxing into another verse, and then a stomp-stomp outro which leaves the listener craving for more of the same. A really excellent and very underrated record which should be played more often. Value wise, issues seem very scarce, I paid £8 for one three years ago and sold it for £15 when I got the demo for £25.

THE PEELS - TIME MARCHES ON (Audio Fidelity AFSP 527)

Anyone expecting a cover version of the brilliant Lainie Hill song of the same title will be sorely dissapointed by this semi-instrumental. It begins with a killer bass riff supplemented by a crashing tambourine, then guitar and drums and finally brass and organ which interchange throughout the rest of the number. There's also a 'chorus' which consists of the backing singers repeating the title four times. This is a really good dance record with several breaks for spins etc., but the voices of the backing singers and the Herb Alpert-style trumpet might put some folk off! The flip side is entitled Scrooey Mooey and is a cross between Louie Louie and Woolly Bully — and yes, it's as bad as it sounds. Value wise, this is quite cheap at around £7 or £8.

CHAPTER FIVE - YOU CAN'T MEAN IT (CBS 2696)

Apparently the Chapter Five were a beat group based in Plymouth, Devon. They only released two singles, but what a pair they are! The first, You Can't Mean It is undoubtedly the best Northern Soul record ever made in the UK, and it's also one of the rarest with a copy recently selling for an astonishing £150. One In A Million is also extremely rare but doesn't seem to have gained a lot of plays on the scene as yet. Beginning with that famous bass riff, the kettledrums so prevelant on You Can't Mean It crash into action once more and we're off with a furious stomping version of the Maxine Brown classic, complete with the bassist using the opening riff to Ain't No Soul throughout! The vocals aren't the most soulful you'll ever hear but that beat more than makes up for that, and there's an excellent brass section which keeps things on the boil. A terrific record, not quite in the same class as their other disc but well worth investing in. Findagroove value this at £80 on demo, I paid considerably less than that but asking around at the 100 Club recently nobody seemed to know the record let alone it's value!

This superb 'ender' first turned up in around 1976 on Bang import but it never really took off. It's still not as widely known as it deserves to be, but practically everyone who's heard it will sing it's praises. An almost Spector-esque production with those familiar wall of sound chime bars, a crashing midtempo beat, anguished vocals from Jimmy and a wailing girly back up crew, all of which go together to make this record one of the best of it's type, rivalled only perhaps by Ray Pollard's Drifter. Check out the flipside too, I Never Loved Her Anyway, which is another midtempo 'builder' which hassen tarntable action at the 100 Club in recent years. Value wise, anything between £15 and £35.

EARL JEAN - I'M INTO SOMETHING GOOD (Colpix PX 729)

Colpix is a fairly obscure label mainly known through Big Dee Irwin's hit Swinging On A Star. I first read of this Earl Jean single in an old Record Collector article where it was described as an instrumental! Well it's certainly not an instrumental but is in fact the original version of the Hermans Hermits hit of 1964. A Gerry Goffin/Carole King composition, it begins with a nice pop-stomp beat and then a vocally-fragile first verse which doesn't bode well for the rest of the record, until the backing vocals come in to add harmony on the chorus and the song just builds from there. Earl Jean has a terrific sweet sounding voice and only sounds about ten years old, but that just adds to the records charm. Not a particularly rare record but a grower, and well worth the £8 that's usually asked. Also look out for Earl Jean's Randy on Colpix PX 748.

BUD HARPER - MR.SOUL/LET ME LOVE YOU (Vocalion VP-9252)

The official A side, Mr.Soul, is well known already and it tends to overshadow the magnificent flip side. Another really excellent midtempo item, Let Me Love You did get played at Stafford but now seems to have been totally forgotten. In marked contrast to Mr. Soul in which Bud plays a swaggering jack-the-lad type dude, this time he's in tender mood with an impassioned plea to his girl: "You look so good, It's a crying shame, Come on baby and let me change your name". I only bought this for Mr.Soul and nearly died when I heard Let Me Love You. A mint copy would probably go for £15, I paid £3 for mine in G+ condition but it plays great. Both sides come from the US Peacock label incidentally.

ESTHER PHILLIPS - JUST SAY GOODBYE (Atlantic AT 4077)

A fairly recent spin, and currently one of the most in-demand records on the Northern scene. It's a slowish ender-type record but with just enough pace on it to keep the dancers happy, and a really tortured vocal from Esther. You either love or hate her voice and a lot of people dislike this record intensely, but I think they're outnumbered by those who do rate it. It begins with a fairly sparse backing of bass, drums and a plodding piano until the brass section arrives on the chorus and turns it into a mini-epic. I paid £25 for this in an auction which I reckon is a little high, but in the hands of certain dealers it would definately go for more.

AL 'TNT' BRAGGS - EARTHQUAKE (Vocalion VP-9278)

This one has been around for ages but has never really been all that popular which is a little hard to understand as it's a great chugging dance number with Al shouting the instructions for his new dance while the girls in the background keep repeating the immortal words "Shake shake shake do the earthquake" - they don't write 'em like that anymore. The first issue on Vocalion tends to sell for £8, which is the price I paid for my demo. The second issue on Action goes for around a fiver.

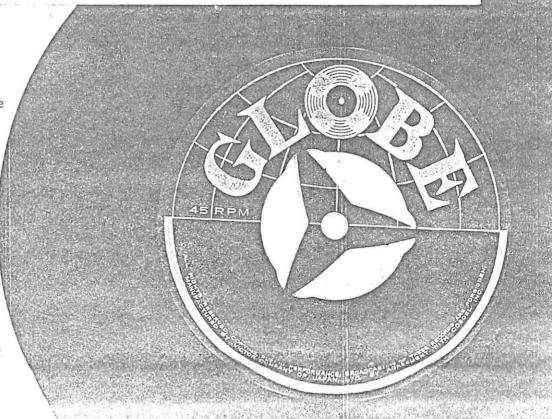

Japanese Temptations 45 anvone? This little beauty was issued in the land of the rising sun in December 1968 on the Globe label through RCA Victor. The sleeve carries the Motown logo but that's about it apart from the 'Gordy Recording' credit on the label. Sorry that the lettering on the label wouldn't copy. but certainly a nice item. It's MINT/MINT. Any offers? Another nice Japanese rarity next issue.

NOTES

TMG 581, Every Little Bit Hurts by Brenda Holloway was originally issued with the artist incorrectly named BRENDA HOLLIDAY, probably on demos only. Confirmation of this would be appreciated.

TMG 614, More Love by Smokey Robinson & The Miracles was withdrawn and issued with a new B side, Come Spy With Me.

KENT RECORDS

I don't know if any of you read issue 4 of The Owls Effort fanzine in which I wrote what I thought to be a pretty comprehensive guide to Northern Soul compilation albums. At around twelve A4 pages it would have been perfect to fill up part of this magazine, however a lot of the article was outside the scope of what we're actually supposed to be writing about. So what I've decided to do is to feature the best known of the compilation labels, Kent, and take a look at some of the UK rarities which have appeared on the label over the last six or seven years. This isn't a comprehensive guide to all UK items released, just those which I think will be of interest to readers.

Cream (Stateside)

I'm afraid that I haven't been keeping up with the Kent releases over the last year so I can't quite bring this piece up to date, but I will do so in the next issue.

There are a few UK items which have turned up on Soul Supply compilations including Bobby Coleman - Pleasure Girl (Pye International)/Incredibles - There Is Nothing Else To Say (Stateside)/Showmen - Our Love Will Grow (Action)/Rufus Lumley - I'm Standing (Stateside)/Bobby Paris - Personally (Polydor)/Skullsnaps - My Hang Up Is You (GSF)/C.O.D.'s - Michael (Stateside) and a few more.

excellent compilations. Soul Time features Shirley Ellis - Soul Time/Spiral Starecase - More Today Than Yesterday/Spellbinders - Help Me/Peaches & Herb - I Need Your Love So Desperately/Lynne Randell - Stranger In my Arms (all CBS)/Major Lance - The Beat (Soul City)/Little Richard - A Little Bit Of Something/Williams & Watson - A Quitter Never Wins (both Columbia). On the album The Right Track we have Billy Butler - The Right Track (Soul City)/Shane Martin - I Need You/Spellbinders - Chain Reaction (both CBS)/Little Richard - I Don't Want To Discuss It (Columbia). SMP/Inferno also put out an album of Scepter/Wand material, some of which had been issued in the UK. Entitled Living The Nightlife, it features the following: Platters - Sweet Sweet Loving (Stateside)/Jackie Wilson - Higher & Higher (BRunswick)/Barbara Acklin - Am I The Same Girl (MCA)/Artistics - I'm Gonna Miss You (Coral)/Rosco Robinson - That's Enough (Pye International)/Esquires - Get On Up (Stateside)/ Chuck Jackson - I Keep Forgetting (Pye International)/ Artistics - Hope We Have (Coral).

Finally, you don't see them very often nowadays but Capitol's Soul Casino album featured lots of UK items from the UK Capitol label including Gloria Jones - Heartbeat/Alexander Patten - A 'Lil Lovin' Sometime/ Human Beinz - Nobody But Me/Nancy Wilson - The End Of Our Love and Patrice Holloway - Love & Desire.

Whatever your feelings are about compilation albums, you can't deny that they enable you to pick up those ultra rare items cheaply, and in excellent quality.

Pix by Gene

TOMMY MOSELY - FOR HER LOVE (Uptown)

For Her Love gained status on the soul scene covered up as Harry Starr - thanks here to London's Keb Darge, Tony Smith and Ion who first spun this side. A double sider (the flip being You Lied, I Cried, Love Died), in my opinion For Her Love is the best of the two, displaying one of the finest midtempo tracks ever to hit the scene. To describe the true craftsmanship of the production of this side is impossible - listen to it yourselves if you haven't already! You Lied is slightly more uptempo and could also go down well. At around £15 a throw this should not go amiss with the lover of mid-tempo.

THE STRIDES - I CAN GET ALONG (WITHOUT YOUR LOVE) (M-S) A bit of an underplayed oldie this one. According to the label details it dates from 1967, and yes as with most good soul records, it hails from Detroit. The M-S label released many good soul cuts in it's time, one other being Lornette's Veil Of Mystery. I Can Get Along could easily pass as a blue-eyed effort, but it still offers the charm of many records which I rate as brill dancers. The B side, The Stride, is the instrumental to the A side, and the last copy I saw of this disc was on offer at £50, so does this say something about the excellent quality of the disc? Well, I can safely say so! Incidentally, I remember Russ Winstanley used to play this at Wigan in 75. The vocal was never played in those days, it was just the instrumental, and it was covered up as the Bob & Earl Band - Pete.

THE VOLUMES - I JUST CAN'T HELP MYSELF (American Arts) Ah, yes - well, the Volumes certainly need no introduction do they?Out of many of their soul offerings including I Got Love, Gotta Give Her Love and the excellent You Got It Baby, this, for me, is the one that sticks in the mind. This is currently going down better than ever, and is, I believe, a Duke Browner composition. Just Can't Help Myself cannot be compared with anything else, this is purely in a class of it's own. The groups vocals are so together, combined with a brilliant backing which takes us into the smallest of breaks towards the end, and this should be one Volumes record that you should all hope to have in your collection (well, someday!). A UK release on Pama is also said to exist (should please Pete) but I've never seen a copy, let alone heard of one being offered for sale. Miss this one at your peril!

(Actually, I've never heard of anyone seeing, owning or even knowing anyone who's got a copy of the Volumes on Pama. This argument has been going on for so long that if one existed it would definately have turned up by now, so shall we close the case by saying that the Volumes' I Just Can't Help Myself definately does not exist on UK Pama. Unless you know better, of course! By the way, I can't let this one go without mentioning the flip side of the above record, One Way Lover. This is even better than Just Can't Help Myself, it's a superb midtempo dancer with immaculate vocals and a brilliant brass-led backing track - possibly in my all time Northern top 10. I'd pay money just to listen to this record! - Pete).

CLETUS MARLAND - EVERY NOW AND THEN (Geneva)

Apparently this is only just starting to gain the total exposure that it has deserved for a long time by means of a few plays here and there. The impact of this (for me) was so striking after listening to it only a couple of times that I immediately started the search for my own copy of the record! The disc itself dates from between 1963-1966, and from the snazz organ intro (which has an uncanny resemblence to Ruby & The Romantics' Our Day Will Come) to the bouncy beat, and ultimately to Mr.Marland's overpowering vocals (this is no exaggeration of the man's talents!), this gives the record all the appropriate qualifications to make it a floorpacker, given more play in the right channels. Hard to put an exact price on this at the moment since it changes hands for anything between £10 and £25, but at any cost is so damn well worth it!

(My grateful thanks to Gene for taking the time to write the above reviews. Hopefully he'll be back with more in issue 2. If you'd like to review any of your current favourite discs I'd be more than delighted to hear from you).

A LOOK AT THE MANY COVER VERSIONS OF TAMLA RECORDINGS ISSUED IN THE U.K. IN THE SIXTIES

It's not clear who began the craze, but it was certainly the inclusion of such tracks as You Really Got A Hold On Me, Money and Please Mr.Postman on the Beatles second album that made many artists sit up and take notice of the quality songwriting eminating from the studios of Hitsville USA. Before long there were tens of Motown covers committed to vinyl, and the latest Motown productions to hit the American Top 100 were immediately 'hijacked' and put out in the UK by such diverse artists as Dave Clark, Ella Fitzgerald, Peter Jay and Julie Grant. There follows a listing of all those cover versions that I've been able to track down. This list doesn't include album tracks though. If you can add more I'd love to hear from you, but only those issued between 1960 and 1970. Those tracks which I've not been able to confirm as a Motown cover (but simply an identical title to a Motown hit) are indicated with an asterisk *.

To finish this piece, I had to get my current top 10 in so here goes:

PETE SMITH (St.Leonards) 10.EDDIE DAYE - Guess who loves you (Shrine) 9.BETTY

LLOYD - I'm catching on (BSC) 8.MANCHESTERS PLAYBOYS - I feel so good (Fontana)

7.TIMI YURO - It'll never be over for me (Liberty LP) 6.VOLUMES - One way lover (American Arts) 5.COURT DAVIS - Try to think (what you're doing)(East Coast)

4.CAIROS - Stop overlooking me (Shrine) 3.JERRY JACKSON - It's rough out there (Cameo Parkway) 2.TONY MIDDLETON - To the ends of the earth (Polydor) 1.CAJUN HART - Gotta find a way (Warner Brothers).

Okay, now it's your turn. Send in your current top 10 for publication, they can be newies, oldies, sixties, seventies, UK labels, US labels, just anything that you're currently listening to. My apologies for there only being a handful of top 10's in this issue but obviously as it's issue number one I've not received any letters in reference to the mag so I just had to ask a few friends for their current favourites. Incidentally, while I've got a small space to fill here, can anyone sell me a Cajun Hart on UK WB (will pay £100), a Tony Middleton on UK Polydor (will pay £80+) and a Manchesters Playboys on UK Fontana (will pay £20). Not bothered about condition so long as they play!

A IN I I BARBO THE ONLY ONE I LOVE

We don't really deal with EP's in this magazine but this little beauty was crying out to be featured. The Miracles Shop Around EP has to be the rarest Motown EP ever issued in the UK. Containing all four tracks from their first two London singles (Shop Around/Who's Lovin' You/ Ain't It Baby/The Only One I Love), this was issued in mono only on the plum London label. catalogue number RE-1295. Items like this turn up probably once a year, so the value of this disc is impossible to guess at acurately. The copy pictured was bought as part of a job lot which included Elvis' Love Me Tender on HMV for £30! My copy came from a friend who bought it for £1 from a workmate (rest assured that I had to pay well over thirty times that amount to obtain my copy. If anyone is interested I've got an EX/EX copy for sale to the highest bidder. No silly offers though, this is as rare as rocking horse shit so unless the price is right I'll keep it.

Four young men and a girl (average age just tipping twenty) make up the versatile quintet known as THE MIRACLES. Lead vocalist is BILL ("Smokey") ROBINSON who is supported by CLAUDETTE ROGERS (Bill's wife), RONALD WHITE, ROBERT ROGERS and WARREN MOORE. Based upon Detroit, Michigan, the four boys gained a useful amount of singing experience together before the present five-voice unit came into being.

"SHOP AROUND", the lively number which headlines this first British EP by THE MIRACLES, proved to be a major hit for Tamla Records throughout the United States and later brought the group many new disc fans on this side of the Atlantic via a London single released in February 1961.

I'm sure you'll agree that the worstthing about looking through records at boot fairs, second-hand shops and even record fairs is that if you come across a record that possibly seems familiar, so you buy it, get it home, play it and it turns out to be a country and western sound or similar. I did this recently with a Migil Five single on Pye, the flip side of which was Nevertheless; there's me thinking it's going to be a stomp version like Lee Andrews', when in fact it turns out to be a ballad! On the other hand however, I recently bought Sonny Childe's Two Lovers on Polydor for £4 on spec recently - I didn't know the record previously - and I certainly wasn't dissapointed. Anyway, I've been doing a bit of research after getting hold of a publication called 'The New Singles' which was a guide to weekly releases, in this case from 65/66/67/68, and I've come up with a list of records which just might be of interest to collectors of UK Northern Soul. I'm not saying that any of these will turn out to be Northern but they do look good on paper. Perhaps some are already known to some of you. New UK dancers are constantly being discovered so you never know. Incidentally I sent my list to Martin Webb from Norwich who is a bit of a UK buff, so you'll find his comments after mine on certain records.

NANCY AMES Friends and lovers forever (Columbia 7809) I'm sure I've seen this on one of Richard Domar's lists described as a beat ballad, priced at around £15. Already known of course for her only other UK release, the classic I Don't Want To Talk About It on Columbia 8039. DIANE & THE JAVELINS Heart And Soul (Columbia 7819) I remember this being featured in Record Collector years ago, may have some connection with Joe Meek's RGM Productions.

EPISODE SIX Put Yourself In My Place (Piccadilly 17018) I presume this is a version of the Elgins number?/A very 'white' version.

TIMES Think About The Times (Columbia 7804) A version of Sam Bowie's Wingate outing? I doubt it!/I think this is the same group that had success on U.S. (not the Tymes though).

ANDEE SILVER Only Your Love Can Save Me (Fontana 666) Possibly a version of the Ayshea disc on Polydor 56276? Ayshea also had a disc out on Fontana so there could be a connection./Not bad both sides.

SHARON TANDY Love Makes The World Go Round (Mercury 898) This girl is well known for her work on Atlantic so I'd guess that this is definately a version of the Deon Jackson song. Also done by, of all people, Beryl Reid on HMV 1489./Very white pop.

NEW FACES Like A Man (Pye 17029) Yet another version of the Verdelle Smith, Marionettes, 2 Of Clubs and Christy Allen number?/Uptempo version.

TRIBE Dancing To The Beat Of My Heart (Polydor 56510) This rings a bell, good title. Think this has just turned up on Soul Supply./Good dancer.

THE NEWS The Entertainer (Decca 12356) Same as Tony Clarke on Chess?

CYAN THREE Since I Lost My Baby (Decca 12371) This band had only the one release, looks like a cover of the Temptations classic.

ROGER YOUNG Sweet Sweet Morning (Columbia 7869) I think that this is already known and played, don't know which is the Northern side though, the above or the flip, Watcha Gonna Give Me.

DAVID BOWIE Do Anything You Say (Pye 17079) This is a surprisingly good pop stomper which could have easily gotten a few plays around 1975. His previous single on Pye 17020 Can't Help Thinking About Me is also good. Both go for around £75 though./Yes, it is good!

CHANTELLES I Think Of You (Parlophone 5431) Girl group noted for the excellent There's Something About You on Polydor 56119. One of their four Parlophone singles has been played but I'm not sure which one. BILLIE DAVIS Heart And Soul (Piccadilly 35308) Had some success on the scene with a fair version of Just Walk In My Shoes on Piccadilly 35350. This is probably the same song as the aforementioned Diane & Javelins disc. LEWIS RICH I Don't Want To Hear It Anymore (Parlophone 5434) This is mentioned in the Findagroove book but I'm not sure which is the Northern side. Flip is entitled Shedding Tears. FADING COLOURS Just Like Romeo And Juliet (Ember 2291) This must be a version of the Reflections, could be a goodie. Probably hard to find though as are most things on Ember./Very poor version (according to Martin). TAWNY REED You Can't Take It Away (Pye 17078) This one's also listed in Findagroove so it must be known. She also did a version of Needle In A Haystack on Pye 15935. FAVOURITE SONS That Driving Beat (Mercury 911) I guess that this must be a cover of the Willie Mitchell number. Not in Findagroove but valued at £4-£6 by Collectable 45's./Not seen one yet to know what it is. CHANTS Come Back And Get This Loving (Fontana 716) Already well known on the scene for the brilliant Baby I Don't Need Your Love on RCA 1754 and also a poor version of Sweetest Feeling on RCA 1823. Don't know what this Fontana disc is like but they also recorded for Decca and Page One, then went on to become the Real Thing in the Seventies. OSCAR Club Of Lights (Reaction 591003) Oscar was in fact TV star Paul Nicholas and his stuff is collectable due to the fact that David Bowie wrote most of them. Club Of Lights is a right stomper but it's pure pop and certainly wouldn't be acceptable in this day and age. TONNY RICH See-Saw (Piccadilly 35323) A version of Don Covay perhaps?/

Not too bad, very mod, big orchestral sound.

SOUNDS ORCHESTRAL Image (Piccadilly 35325) This group are already known for their Piccadilly EP track Ain't That Peculiar. The tune was a popular pirate radio theme, originally by Hank Levine on HMV 1390, then via a cover by Alan Haven on Fontana 542.

LOVING KIND Ain't That Peculiar (Piccadilly 35342) This has to be a cover of Marvin Gaye, rated at £5 by Findagroove and £6-£8 by Collectable 45's so it must have been played in the past./Typical beat version.

LESLEY DAWSON Just Say Goodbye (Mercury 946) Her Run For Shelter was briefly played at Wigan in 78 on Mercury 965. Could this possibly be a version of the Esther Phillips biggie?/Not heard it but some say it's good. OLIVER BOND Knock On Wood (Parlophone 5527) Must be a UK version of the Eddie Floyd standard.

SHEILA CARTER & EPISODE SIX Incense (Pye 17194) Maybe a cover of the Anglos? ALEX HARVEY Work Song (Fontana764) Well known song done by just about everbody. He did a respectable version of Agent 00 Soul on Fontana 610 which goes for £12 or so. This one's not so rare but he's collectable in rock circles so I7d guess that this would be quite hard to track down. ESCORTS From Head To Toe (Columbia 8061) I think the Escorts were a Merseybeat group, Collectable 45's value this at £15 so I'm sure ot must be a version of Chris Clark on Motown.

BOBBY BENNETT Just Say Goodbye (CBS 202511) Don't know if this is the UK or US Bobby Bennett, but more to the point, is this also a version of Esther Phillips?/He's black, similar to J.J.Jackson so it should be good. MUSIC MACHINE Talk Talk (Pye 25407) Possibly a version of James Carr on BYSTANDERS Stubborn Kind Of Fellow (Piccadilly 35363) Another version of Marvin Gaye, all their stuff is collectable./Good version.

DON CHARLES Bring Your Love To Me (Parlophone 5564) Could this be a version of the Righteous Brothers biggie of a couple of years back? If it is it can't possibly be much worse than the original!/Good version.

DON CHARLES The Drifter (Parlophone 5688) I thought this couldn't possibly be THE Drifter but Martin confirms that it is, and I've since seen it on Pat Brady's list for £20. Should be interesting.

JERRY BUTLER Some Kind Of Magic (Mercury 964) Bobby Hebb did a number of the same title on Philips which was quite nice, don't know if this is the same song.

ORNELLA VANONI Our Song (Decca 22591) Led Zepplin singer Robert Plant released Our Song on CBS as his first single, that one goes for £100 and is described as a Northern Stomper. The above version came out on the same day as Plant's record so it's safe to assume it's the same song - but is it a dancer? JACK RUANE JR. I Get The Fever (Pye 17359) Surely this can't be the same as the Prophets/Creation number? Could be well worth investigating. LESLEY GORE It's A Happening World (Mercury 1017) I've got this by Paula Wayne on RCA 1738, it's rubbish but a bit of a pop-dancer. JOHN ROBERTS Sockin' 1-2-3 (Sue 4042) The release sheet that I have shows this as being on Island but the number is a Sue one. I remember seeing this on a Manship list circa '77 but haven't heard it mentioned since. JOHN O'HARA Show Me (Fontana 974) This was played around the time when Joe Tex went big again in '77. I have a 1968 album by this band live at an allnighter in Leicester which contains covers of Atlantic/Motown things. TONY & THE GRADUATES The Statue (In - number unknown) Presumably a version of the Tommy Sands dancer on Liberty./Beat version. BOOMERANGS Don't Let Her Be Your Baby (Fontana - number unknown) Anyone know anything whatsoever about this one? GENTRYS Everyday I Have To Cry (Mercury) Looks as though there are several versions of this song around, they're best known for Keep On Dancing. SUSAN MAUGHAN That Other Place (Philips 1363) I've heard that this is a

That was as far as I got. I've only got two release sheets from 1965 and none whatsoever before that, so I think I'll have missed numerous Motown cover versions by UK beat groups. From the above I'm certain that a handful of them must be worth investigating, admittedly a lot of them will probably turn out to be rubbish but if anyone does know any of the above, or comes across them, maybe they could write in and let us know what they're like?

version of the recent Wade Flemons biggie - can anyone confirm this?

PARLOPHONE

The Parlophone label is generally remembered for being the home for the Beatles and other Mersey artists such as Cilla Black and the Fourmost, but in the mid 1950's when the label was becoming established there were several excellent r & b releases including the original version of the standard Fever by Little Willie John and two ultra-rare singles by Otis Williams & The Charms (Hearts Of Stone and Ivory Tower) which would set you back well over £100 for the pair. Apart from the odd single by Hank Ballard and Bill Doggett, the label was pretty inactive for the first part of the 60's but the success of the Beatles helped to revitalise both the music industry and the Parlophone label, with new beat groups signing up every week. As with the Columbia label, many Parlophone releases are white UK artists versions of current American rhythm'n'blues and Motown hits, so there are several interesting cover versions to be found on the label. Incidentally, as with Columbia the original label seems to have been mauve with gold lettering, then mauve with silver, red with silver and finally black with silver. Demos are white with the large red A up until 1967 when they change to green with white A.

First off is the Fourmost with their version of the Four Tops first UK hit, albeit a minor one, Baby I Need Your Loving (5194). This is a note-for-note copy of the original and can be found on one of the excellent Ready Steady Go videos in which the lead singer completely forgets the lyrics. Around £4 for this one.

More Motown cover versions on the label were from Beverly Jones with Heatwave (5189), Adam Faith's old mates the Roulettes with Stubborn Kind Of Fellow (5218) and several cuts by the excellent Action from London who seem to have been well into the Motown and R & B scenes. Their first single was the Chris Kenner (and others) standard Land Of A Thousand Dances which was backed with a version of Martha & The Vandellas' In My Lonely Room (5354). This was followed by the Marvellettes I'll Keep Holding On backed with Mickey Lee Lane's Hey Sah Lo Ney (5410), and then their best release, the dancing Baby You Got It backed with a competent version of the Temptations' Since I Lost My Baby (5474). All of these singles are now very sought after, especially on the mod/beat scene, but they can be picked up relatively cheaply on Edsel Records compilation entitled 'The Ultimate Action' which features all of the A and B sides of their singles plus a couple of unreleased tracks too.

Other cover versions which may be of interest are the Incas' I'll Keep Holding On (5551), Michael Cox's I'll Always Love You (5580) and Gene Latter's Too Busy Thinking About My Baby (5913).

Okay, onto the real meat. The big rarities on the Parlophone label are all UK productions. Mark Loyd (correct spelling incidentally) with his superb When I'm Gonna Find Her (5423), a really excellent midtempo item with a somewhat understated beat but a real grower, and a very difficult record to price, but I'd guess around £18. This is a B side incidentally (to When Evening Falls).

Barry Benson's Stay A Little While (5446) has gained occasional plays since 1976 without ever really going massive. A typical British pop stomper with excrutiating falsetto vocals from Mr.Benson. Not as rare as it once was, fair price is around a tenner.

Another pure pop item is Mia Lewis with Nothing Lasts Forever (5526). This is written by the same duo who penned Barry St.John's excellent Everything I Touch Turns To Tears but is in a markedly different class to that one - a lot lower. It's practically undanceable too being too fast, but still goes for £10.

One of the best UK produced discs on Parlophone is Herbie Goins & The NIght-Timers' Number One In Your Heart (5478), an excellent uptempo dancer from a very popular live act of the period. You'd pay around £12 for this, though it can be picked up on the Kent compilation Right Back Where We Started From.

Jimmy Thomas' This Beautiful Night (5773) was withdrawn soon after release when the implications of the lyrics became clear, so issues are worth almost as much as demos, £18 to £25. It's a pretty poor record though, and he recut the song for 20th Century in 1975 without success.

Frankie & Johnny are we'l known on the scene for the superb I'll Hold You on Decca, and here's another dancer from the duo entitled I Wanna Make you understand (5518). Flip side to a diabolical version of Climb Every Mountain, this is a messy record which completely lacks the class of the Decca cut, but is a fair piano-driven dancer which could go with a bit of encouragement.

Surely the most often recorded Northern sound after the perrenial Take Me For A Little while has to be Like A Man. The version on Parlophone is by the Marionettes (5416) and apart from the crashing instrumental break in the middle of the song it's easily the weakest version. A cheapie at £3 or £4.

Easily the best release on Parlophone is the brilliant It's Just Love by John Andrew's & The Lonely Ones (5455). This is a stunning slab of mid-sixties soul, and for the B-side of a British pop single the authentic sixties soul feel to the record is unbelieveable. Great lyrics too: "You get a feeling there's gonna be an earthquake, all the birds and the bees seem to migrate, something mysterious is in the air, you can't see it but yo know it's there". It's a great shame that this never went big, I know it was played over on the East Coast but I only ever heard it once at Wigan and then it didn't really go. Not sure about the price, between £15 and £20 I should think - I'd definately pay that price anyway.

A couple of records which I will admit to not having heard but have heard of are Steve Aldo with Everybody Has To Cry (5432), Oliver Bond's Let Me Love You (5476 same as Bud Harper maybe?) and the Virgil Brothers' Temptation 'Bout To Get Me (5787). Also look out for some early James Brown releases on Parlophone, notably Night Train on 4922, and a rarity from the Crystals with There's No Other (4867). Lastly, I recently came across a cover of the Vogues' Five O Clock World by Greg Hunter (5483), certainly unknown by me but very danceable if that sort of record ever catches on again (let's hope not perhaps).
